

The Official Dish Rag: Revenge

*On the increase rows, always K the last stitch through the back loop to keep a pretty edge.
KFB: Knit into the front and back of each stitch, making 2 stitches out of 1*

Materials: one ball of dish cloth cotton, needles a reasonable size for the yarn (US 7)
the finished cloth should be around 8" square

Cast on 2

KFB and then K to end of row - repeat this row until there are 14 sts on the needle

Next: KFB, K5, YO, P2tog, K6

Next three rows: KFB, K to end (18 sts)

Begin Pattern for Real

Row 1: KFB, K5 *YO, P2tog from * to last six stitches, K6 (wrong side)

Rows 2-4: KFB, K to end for 3 rows

Repeat these four rows until there are 42 stitches on the needle.

Next: K6 *YO, P2TOG to last 6 stitches, K6 (42 sts - 15 eyelets)

You're halfway there!

Start Decreasing the Square

Rows 1-3: K2TOG, K to end

Row 4: K2TOG, K5, *YO, P2TOG repeat from * to the last 6 stitches, K6

Repeat these four rows until there are 14 stitches on the needle.

K2TOG, K to end of row until 2 stitches are left.

K2TOG and tie off, weave in the loose ends and you're done!
